

T·R·E·E·S

a photography contest

presented by Million Trees Miami and Dade Heritage Trust
sponsored by Tropical Treescapes, Inc, TREEmendous Miami, Leica Camera and Miami Photo Workshops

Subject Matter

Photographers must capture images of Miami's urban trees. Miami's urban parking lots, vacant lots, sites and urban parks and neighborhoods are home to some magnificent trees that are quickly disappearing due to development and transportation demands. This contest will drive awareness of the importance of these trees to a healthful, happy and beautiful Miami.

General Guidelines

- Ownership and copyright of all entries remain with the photographer
- Participation in the contest grants Million Trees Miami and Dade Heritage Trust unlimited and non-exclusive use for publications, website and other uses to promote Million Trees and Miami and Dade Heritage Trust work
- Entries and entry form must be submitted digitally with the registration form to chris@dadeheritagetrust.org
- Entries will be presented in an exhibit at Dade Heritage Trust, 190 SE 12 Terrace opening Thursday, October 5, 2017 and prize winners will be announced.
- Deadline for entry is September 1, 2017.
- Registration fee is $35 to cover cost of printing for exhibit

Registration information:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Credit Card: Number _____ Exp. _____ Code: _____

Photo description:

Title: _____

Location and time of day: _____

Camera type: _____

Please send registration form and photo to chris@dadeheritagetrust.org you mail also mail form and check to Chris Rupp, Dade Heritage Trust, 190 SE 12 Terrace, Miami, FL 33131 Call 305-358-9572 or email chris@dadeheritagetrust.org for additional info